DEVIL, YOU'VE DONE
YOUR WORST. NOW
WE WILL DO OUR BEST.

Devil, you did
your worst, now
in Las Vegas
we will do our best.

On January 29th, after standing for 4 crusade services back to back—some lasting 3 hours—I felt a strange and growing tinge of pain in my left leg. After a long flight home it became excruciating. It centralized around the hip. I became bedridden.

This is when the devil tries to play with your mind. I have already missed two precious events—events that meant a lot to me and our mission. I was to be at Bethel Church in Redding and then on TBN.

Now I can tell you, for the first time, how bad the attack was. It was more vicious, cruel, and strategic than any previous attack. It was designed to wipe out our outreach and break my spirit.

At one point, the pain threw me to the floor. I saw a sorrow in my wife's eyes I never want to see again. I knew then, I could not tell her what was really happening inside me.

It seemed I would never walk again, let alone preach. I am used to his lies. This time it felt different. It felt like he was stabbing me in my spine and hip with a knife—while he lied.

Then my miracle came. It may not sound like much to you but the pain subsided 50%. Believe me, compared to before, that is a miracle.

The despair of never preaching again turned to an unquenchable fire to preach. The idea that I would never walk has become a passion to add cities for our tent crusades. If there is a Biblical beast mode, I have found it.

Here is the most important lesson I learned: You must make the devil pay for attacking you. That is the only language he understands—divine retribution. Satan must be convinced that any attack on a child of God will be thrown back in his face.

The sister lesson is this: You were attacked because something you were about to do was a great threat to him. Therefore, you must determine to do that thing. You must make the enemy understand you will never stop until you do what he did not want you to do.

Winston Churchill had a standing order: When Hitler bombs London, the Royal Air force was to take off immediately and bomb Germany.

Churchill also used his lethal command of language to taunt Hitler. It is strange but true that Hitler felt inferior to Churchill and somehow needed his approval. Hitler couldn't help but read anything Churchill sent him. Adolf opened one message that read, "You have done your worst, now we will do our best."

Historians wonder why Hitler—with victory over Britain all but guaranteed—turned his armies toward Russia. I know why. He feared Churchill. He knew that attacking him would always be a mistake. He knew Churchill would never give up and never surrender.

The devil must feel that way about you. The enemy of your soul must be taught that every attack on you will backfire. If your vision is delayed, so what! Get up and make the devil pay for what he has done to you, your family, your finances, and your health. Redouble your determination to get back in the fight.

That is exactly why, even though my affliction forced a delay, I am going to Las Vegas no matter what. I brought my leaders to my house and told them, "Satan has attacked me. He is telling me to stay away from Las Vegas." Then I challenged them, "What are we going to do about it?!"

They wholeheartedly agreed—Satan will not stop us from going to Las Vegas. We cleared the decks. We postponed other outreaches. Las Vegas is our next outreach. Period. As you read this the groundwork continues in Las Vegas.

This decision has already boomeranged on the devil. It has increased the size of our outreach.

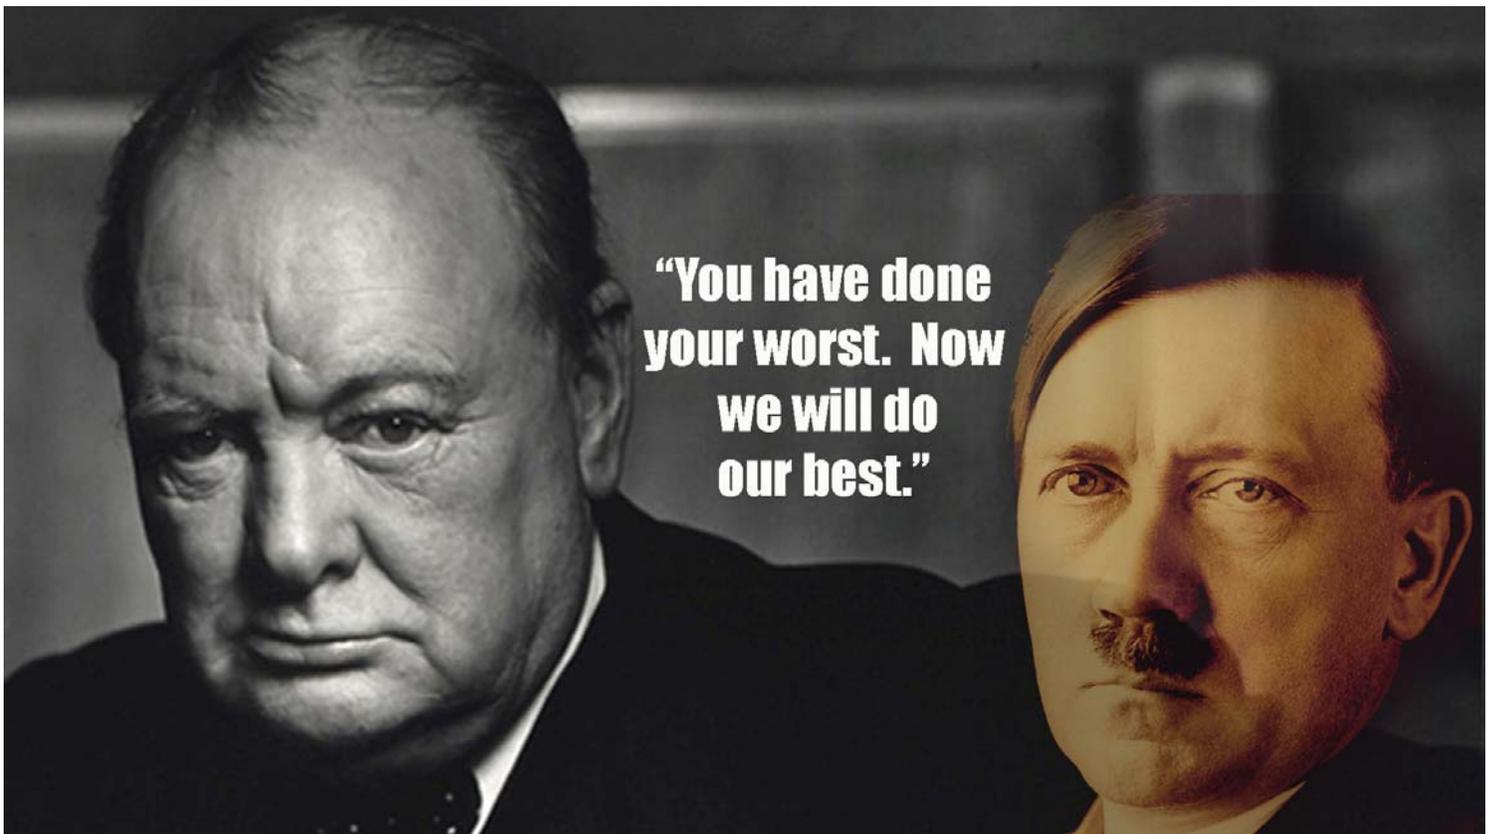

Now, it will be bigger, stronger and deeper than our original plan. This short delay will have devastating effects on the powers of darkness.

We are going to Las Vegas to win the lost and heal the sick on a larger scale than we have ever known. We are going where gangs operate. We are going where addicts languish. We are going where the homeless sit in despair.

We are coming fully charged with the power of God. We have boots on the ground! Soldiers are coming to our side. This Living Proof Tent Crusade will feature the widest range of ministries to touch human need we have ever seen.

We will open the flood gates of heaven in the abyss of human suffering in this city. Never—and I mean never—has the fire for winning souls burned so hot within me. Devil, you did your worst. Now, in Las Vegas, we will do our best.

To all of you who have sacrificed and given to this holy cause...rest assured, your seed will now produce an even greater harvest.

There is no version of this where the enemy wins. I am standing in the confidence that the same power that is so richly present in our meetings will now overshadow me through your prayers.

Now let me give you a word: I don't know how the devil attacked you. I don't know what he stole from you. I can't see into your soul to see what the enemy has done. What I do know is GREATER IS HE WHO IS IN YOU! Right now, you must rise up and resolve to make Satan pay for attacking you.

We will now win more souls than ever. Not just in Las Vegas, but across America. I have prayed that you would not see this as a setback but a setup for even greater results in Las Vegas. Now that we have a little more time we can reach a bigger audience. Will you let God use you to take advantage of this new opportunity? Your gift—regardless of its size—will help us reach more souls in Las Vegas. But please be bold and give largely to this holy cause. I am praying you will see a mighty return on your gift to help me win the lost, heal the sick and ignite revival in America.
