TOLEDO OHIO

Is this a sign to the nation?

In 1993, I was dreading going to Toledo, Ohio. It was my next stop after a tent crusade in La Puente, California, with Sonny Arguinzoni and Victory Outreach.

4,000 people a night packed the tent. Sunlight and so many warm bodies made the tent a hot house. Then the evening breeze would drop the temperature dramatically. I would sweat while preaching and then start shivering when I was done. This gave me severe bronchitis.

Going to Toledo where there was early snow and freezing temperatures seemed insane. I called Pastor

Tony Scott that Thursday and asked to be excused. He graciously agreed. Then he did something no other pastor I know had ever done.

He had the audacity to call back and tell me God wanted me to come anyway. Tony Scott is bodacious. One reason we are lifelong friends is that he prays, hears from God, and obeys—no matter what.

I was flabbergasted. No way could I go to Toledo. But I couldn't shake Tony's words. Soon I was on a jet, breaking every personal rule of travel, choking back coughs for hours.

The same God that moved Tony, spoke to me, "I will heal you before you preach in Toledo." That miracle came Sunday morning.

What happened next is engraved in the history of Toledo, Ohio. What never should have happened became a city-wide miracle. It impacted tens of thousands of people for the next 18 months. The revival—dubbed Holy Toledo—drew crowds of 4,500 people.

It came during a critical election. A believer and an agnostic vied for mayor. The agnostic was so far ahead on election day the media said he won hours before the polls closed. However, we told the people to vote before coming to the meeting. By 9 PM, a red-faced news media had to apologize—the agnostic lost. Later, the new mayor gave our ministry the key to the city.

The church grew dramatically, taking over a 57-acre, Fortune 500 company's corporate headquarters. They even added two other church campuses! They are called the Church on Strayer located at 3000 Strayer Road Maumee Ohio 43537.

On September 23, 2017, I returned to Toledo—one of ten cities we targeted this year—with a Living Proof Crusade. The church was finishing a 21 day fast.

All the meetings were amazing — but, Sunday night was inexplicable.

You could call it a church service. I have been to church services. Calling it a church service is like calling a BMW a cup holder.

You could say it was a good meeting. I have been to good meetings. To call this a good meeting is like calling a volcano a good desk candle.

After 50 years of ministry, I can count on one hand the number of times God's glory was so thick and real that I was frightened to walk in the room. Yeah, it was like that.

The power of God was aggressive and fierce. The Holy Spirit did not merely reveal gifts of power—He showcased them. The details He granted and the force with which He removed illness destroyed all doubt. Hungry souls flooded the altar for new life in Jesus.

When he closed the meeting, Tony Scott said to the crowd, "As a boy I attended Oral Roberts tent meetings, but I have never seen power like this in any meeting." One thing is certain... it had nothing to do with Mario Murillo—just Jesus Christ.

Right now, many are caving into the idea that we are finished as a nation. We have had the worst storms, floods and earthquakes. We are bitterly divided. We have witnessed a nameless horror in Las Vegas. We hear the threats of World War Three. But is this explosion of power in Toledo a sign to the nation? Does it mean that God has rolled up His sleeves and launched a fresh wave of glory and power to sweep the nation? Has God chosen this moment to judge demons and stem the tide of wickedness?

“Silly,” you say. “Outlandish,” you say. Well, you had to be in that room—feeling the nation-changing firepower of that night in Toledo. I have no doubt that fire will now spread to our tent crusades.

P.S. Momentum is a gift God requires us to nurture and protect. Paul said, “Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

- Philippians 3: 12-14

I could not live with myself if, after seeing what I saw in Toledo and knowing what I know is about to happen to our nation, I were to waste this momentum that Jesus has given us to attack the devil with this fresh weapon of LIVING PROOF. Please give boldly to keep this miracle moving forward.
